Introductory Note

The purpose of this index is to assist our subscribers in the use of volumes one through three of The American Journal of Trial Advocacy.

This index is divided into three parts in order to provide a detailed classification. The author index to articles is indexed by authors' names in alphabetical order. The subject matter index allows the reader to find articles, notes, or recent developments by probing the nature of the problem with which he or she is dealing. The final part of the index lists all cases which have received textual treatment in volumes one through three.

It is the Journal's intent to hereafter include an index at the end of each volume as well as periodic cumulative supplements. It is our hope that this index will serve as a useful tool in allowing our readers ready access to the material contained in The American Journal of Trial Advocacy.
